

“RACISM LIVES”

It is with GREAT SADNESS I must confess that, yes, racism lives! Without question there are still white racist, i.e. the klan, white supremacists and skinheads, they are a distinct and ignorant minority in this country. The real home of dangerous and divisive racism in the U.S. is on the left.

My last commentary; a satire on the accusations of left wing lunatics, was meant to make this point. The fact is, left wing lunatics are the real racists in our land, because their beliefs are so radical as to be indefensible with intelligent debate. They can only shout and accuse us on the right of racism. My commentary (readable on this web site) listed many position, real fundamentalist Christians should share, but responded to by the left with the argument we are racists. Someone even took the greeting of this web page "Welcome to Family Worship Center" and pasted the last line of my last commentary with it to read, "Welcome to Family Worship Center to all my fellow racists" and placed my name on it. They then put that quote on google; gave it to some of the black members of our congregation, who brought it to some here at FWC. Now, I don't know who did this, BUT, whoever you are, YOU ARE A LIAR! You are dishonest and a racist. But I should have expected it, since you on the left are weak minded and sleazy, with no depth of dishonesty to which you will not stoop to discredit your detractors on the right. The members of FWC know I'm no racist AND the black leaders (Elders, Deacons, Teachers & Worship Leaders), as well as the nearly 35% black members of our congregation, know I've repeatedly thrown my arms open to "whosoever will".

Yes, racism lives. And no where is more apparent than in the black community. Our black members who have been railed upon by family and friends for attending a church with a white (though I'm anything but white) pastor, attests to the racism among the black pastors and their congregations. Though they cry out against racism, as far as I know, after FWC, only Rev John Houze, of Peoples Church, has a congregation racially diverse in our community. Yes, racism lives and is alive and well, in the black community.

I have spent my fourteen years in Kings Mountain reaching out, building bridges to the African-American community in our city. I'm proud of the success we've had, but I am mad as the hot place at the Obama led, marxist agenda, that now is dividing our fellowship and friendship ANY Minister or Christian that can support abortion on demand, same sex marriage, the abandonment of Christ for exaltation of Islam, JUST BECAUSE YOU HAVE A HALF BLACK PRESIDENT, has lost their foundation of "THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE" (Jn.14:6). Is this racism? You bet! If I voted for a white man, simply because he is white, not believing in his platform and principles, THAT WOULD MAKE ME A RACIST! If you voted for a black man, JUST BECAUSE HE IS BLACK, not believing in his platform and principles, THAT MAKES YOU A RACIST!

The latest Gallop poll (10/4/10 Drudge Report) reveals approval of Obama presidency, blacks 91%. Whites 36%, broken down as follows: Young people 57%, Hispanics 55%, among those who approve, moderates 54%, democrats 79%, liberals 75%. So if you love rejecting Christ, covering the cross so it will not appear with photos as the President speaks. Deliberately omitting from speeches our rights are given us by God. Promoting Islam, Homosexual agenda, Planned Parenthood Agenda, communists running the nations departments, attacks on free speech and the totally socialists/marxism policies of the Obama Administration, then you agree with it or you are a racist! IF you agree with this man's direction for our country, what ever you are, Christian you are not. And no, my stand on this is not based on race, IT IS BASED IN PRINCIPLE AND LOVE OF GOD AND COUNTRY!

So, I have received some flack and pressure because of my strong stand and statements. Some have asked me to back off. Others have just left taking their support with them. LET ME BE PERFECTLY CLEAR. Nothing in my ministry can be pointed to to make me out a racist. That is the lefts definition of me and people like me. But yes, racism lives, but it's on the part of those who want to paint people like me with that brush. So I say what I've said to the communities I've ministered in for over 30 years, "Whosoever will, let him come". Black, brown, yellow, red or white, purple poke-a- dot, you are wanted and welcome. But you will only be able to stay if you can handle hearing the truth. Together, we can beat down the walls of racism, "till we all come to the unity of the faith, and the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:" (Eph. 4: 13-15). (Acts 17:26), "And (God) hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth". In other words, there is only ONE RACE. THE HUMAN RACE! So yes, racism lives. BUT NOT IN ME AND NOT AT FWC!
