

SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING

The President's supporters have launched a new monitoring website for citizens to report people who criticize the President and their comments. The name of the site is attackwatch.com and they parade under the slogan of "See something, say something". Well, I SEE SOMETHING and I'm going to SAY SOMETHING! I see a Marxist, Islam promoting president, masquerading as a lover of the USA. This in spite of the facts of this administration's daily assault on our constitution and liberties. All in an attempt to become the U.S. "Der Fuhrer".

The blindness of those who straightforwardly defend this push to undermine the very fabric of our society is appalling. Christians and Pastors who stand with him on same sex marriage, repeal of Don't Ask Don't Tell, no restriction on abortions, pushing Christianity to curb in our society and elevating Islam to greater prominence. Surely all of you remember Abdullah's midnight ride to alert the citizens that the British were coming. And who can forget General Hussein Assad's great leadership in the Revolutionary War? You remember, the Father of our country?

And how about the appointment of Timothy Geitner to oversee our financial policy? A man who either did not understand the tax code sufficiently to fill out the forms in order to pay his taxes OR was a deliberate tax cheater. It is either or, but you cannot have it both ways. But listen to Geithner, (CNBC), "You have this terribly damaging political dysfunction here and in Europe that leaves the world wondering whether the political system has the capacity to do the right thing". A rare moment of truth and candor from a member of the current administration. But what they want to fill this void is unimaginably dangerous and evil.

The ineptitude (at least) or deliberate action (at worst), of this administration has helped create many dangerous situations in our world. The Middle East is about to blow wide open and we have a Islam promoting leader of the free world. Turkey is moving further into the radical Islamic realm, (Ezek 38:6), threatening to send warships with the next flotilla running the Israeli blockade of Gaza. Israel and U.S. Embassies are being attacked in the Arab Spring countries. Imans are warning Christian leaders they will be killed and their churches burned. Why should be concerned? War is inevitable and drawing nearer. Daniel 9:24 states the end-time years concern Israel and it's neighbors. We (U.S.A.) are not in that equation. With our Islamic President, it is becoming evident why.

The U.S. and European countries are in deep financial crisis and riots are troubling Europe's governments. The world we have known is forever changing. Our looney tune left, (apologies to looney tune cartoon characters), are ruled by mental midgets as Rep. Jan Schakowsky, (Illinois), "You don't deserve to keep all of your money", (Don Wade & Roma Radio Show, Chicago). But she wouldn't say how much of our money we deserve to keep.

Well, of course we don't, because our leader must have it to give over $500 billion to Solyndra for a photo op. According to A.P. (9/15/11) there are 15 more companies in line for like minded loans.

Some say, Roger we're going to vote 'em out in 2012. Well, I hope so, but it ain't a lead pipe cinch. The church as a whole is yet to get sufficiently aroused. Perhaps we will, because a revival is really the only hope we have. Till then, I just have to continue to speak. When I SEE SOMETHING, I intend to SAY SOMETHING!
