

U.S. NO LONGER A CHRISTIAN NATION

Our President declared it so, while visiting a muslim nation, which is under massive assault of radical muslims, and before a muslim audience. We're just a people who coalesce around a few secular principles (the marxist principles of Obama).

Well, the president didn't speak for me, but from George Barna's recent poll results, he spoke for a majority of Americans. Though our founding fathers principles were without question Judeo Christian and our foundation for over 200 hundred years, the designs of the humanists to destroy that foundation have largely been realized in my lifetime. A majority of Americans still identify with the term Christian, but it has come to be no more Christian than the Christian Democrats of Europe. Christian would be passed over by many today for the label "spiritual", which allows an amalgam of new age, liberation theology (a milder name for marxism), a little voodoo, shamanism and practically anything else. Today's American Christian believes abortion to be choice, homosexual marriage no big deal, social drinking o.k., moderate drug use acceptable and co-habitation without marriage just a right of passage. Why a little recreational adultery can be good for you. There is no appreciable difference between the average "Christian" and the average citizen standard way of life. Not only do the polls show this to be unmistakably true, but look at the voting results "Christians" and "Pastors" gave to these ungodly principles in the last election. These same individuals turn a blind eye now and say just give the man some time. Well, if the pace we've been on the last three months stripping away the principles of our nation, running break neck to marxism, is any indication, we cannot wait any longer. May the T.E.A. Party movement be the beginning of an uprising that can bring enough pressure to stop this madness while there is time. The American Christian Church has so prostituted itself as to be an irrelevant voice and influence in the land. Ministers and true Christians who dare lift a protest are lampooned and marginalized as to feel like "voices in the wilderness". But never forget, that first "voice" was a forerunner for the "Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world". That "voice", preached Jesus, till he showed up in the crowd! Some of us are going to do the same!

So let others embrace the isms of our time. Let others exchange Christ for the flood tide of Islam. Watch our President give a speech where the name of Christ must be covered, because we don't dare identify with Christ in anyway. Let us cozy up to every marxist killer, dictator and muslim leader in the world, while we distance ourselves from Israel and our Christian heritage. Not a Christian nation may be accurate today, but the truth is as unshakable today as ever, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and ALL NATIONS THAT FORGET GOD." (Ps. 9: 17, Emphasis mine)
